

Today we're going to practice one 150 Daily Life Conversation English questions and answers.

These are questions that people ask you every single day.

I've divided them into three easy parts.

Part one has fifty easy questions and answers.

Part two has fifty normal difficulty questions and answers.

Part three has fifty difficult questions and answers.

And here's how this will help you.

When you repeat after me, your mouth learns how to move.

Your brain learns how to think in English faster.

Your confidence grows with each answer.

By the end of this video, answering questions in English will feel much more natural.

But I have one important request for you.

Please don't skip any part of this video.

Don't think part one is too easy and jump to part two.

Every part is important.

You need to build your foundation first.

Just like building a house, you start from the bottom.

If you practice all one hundred and fifty questions with me today, I promise you will feel the difference.

Your speaking will become smoother.

Your confidence will become stronger.

So here's what you need to do right now.

Get comfortable.

Maybe grab a notebook and pen.

Find a quiet place where you can speak out loud.

Turn off all distractions.

Give me your full attention for the next few minutes.

Because today is the day your English speaking changes.

Are you ready to start this journey with me?

Are you ready to practice one hundred and fifty questions and answers?

Are you ready to become a confident English speaker?
