

Today we're going to practice 300 Daily Life Conversation English Shadowing Sentences

These are sentences that English speakers use every single day.

I've divided them into three easy parts.

Part one has 100 easy sentences.

Part two has 100 normal sentences.

Part three has 100 difficult sentences.

And here's how this will help you.

When you repeat after me, your mouth learns how to move.

Your brain learns how to think in English faster.

Your confidence grows with each sentence.

By the end of this video, speaking English will feel much more natural.

But I have one important request for you.

Please don't skip any part of this video.

Don't think part one is too easy and jump to part two.

Every part is important.

You need to build your foundation first.

Just like building a house, you start from the bottom.

If you practice all 300 sentences with me today, I promise you will feel the difference.

Your speaking will become smoother.

Your confidence will become stronger.

So here's what you need to do right now.

Get comfortable.

Maybe grab a notebook and pen.

Find a quiet place where you can speak out loud.

Turn off all distractions.

Give me your full attention for the next few minutes.

Because today is the day your English speaking changes.

Are you ready to start this journey with me?

Are you ready to practice 300 sentences?

Are you ready to become a confident English speaker?

Alright, welcome to Part 1.

These are easy sentences that you use every single day.

Listen to me carefully, then repeat after me two times.

This double practice will help your mouth remember the words.

Let's begin!

I wake up at seven.

I wake up at seven.

I brush my teeth.

I brush my teeth.

I take a shower.

I take a shower.

I get dressed quickly.

I get dressed quickly.

I make my bed.

I make my bed.

I drink coffee every morning.

I drink coffee every morning.

I eat breakfast at home.

I eat breakfast at home.

I check my phone.

I check my phone.

I read the news.

I read the news.

I leave for work.

I leave for work.

I drive to the office.

I drive to the office.

I take the bus.

I take the bus.

I walk to school.

I walk to school.

The weather is nice today.

The weather is nice today.

It's raining outside.

It's raining outside.

I forgot my umbrella.

I forgot my umbrella.

I need to buy groceries.

I need to buy groceries.

Explanation: Groceries means food and household items you buy from the store like bread, milk, vegetables, and other daily things.

The store is closed.

The store is closed.

I'm feeling tired.

I'm feeling tired.

I slept well last night.

I slept well last night.

What time is it?

What time is it?

It's almost noon.

It's almost noon.

Explanation: Noon means 12 o'clock in the daytime, the middle of the day.

I'm running late.

I'm running late.

Explanation: Running late means you are going to be late, you don't have enough time.

Can you help me?

Can you help me?

Sure, no problem.

Sure, no problem.

Thank you so much.

Thank you so much.

You're welcome.

You're welcome.

Excuse me, please.

Excuse me, please.

I'm sorry about that.

I'm sorry about that.

Don't worry about it.

Don't worry about it.

I have a question.

I have a question.

Where is the bathroom?

Where is the bathroom?

It's down the hall.

It's down the hall.

Explanation: Down the hall means go straight in the hallway or corridor.

Turn left here.

Turn left here.

Go straight ahead.

Go straight ahead.

I'm looking for my keys.

I'm looking for my keys.

Did you see my phone?

Did you see my phone?

It's on the table.

It's on the table.

I found it, thanks.

I found it, thanks.

I'm so hungry right now.

I'm so hungry right now.

What's for lunch?

What's for lunch?

Explanation: What's for lunch means what food are we eating for lunch.

I want pizza today.

I want pizza today.

Let's order some food.

Let's order some food.

I prefer coffee over tea.

I prefer coffee over tea.

Explanation: Prefer means you like one thing more than another thing.

This tastes really good.

This tastes really good.

I don't like spicy food.

I don't like spicy food.

Can I have some water?

Can I have some water?

The food is getting cold.

The food is getting cold.

I'm full now.

I'm full now.

Explanation: Full means you ate enough food and your stomach is satisfied.

That was delicious.

That was delicious.

Explanation: Delicious means very tasty, very good to eat.

Great job so far!

You're doing amazing.

Let's continue with the next 50 sentences.

Keep repeating after me two times.

Let's go!

I need to rest.

I need to rest.

I'm taking a break.

I'm taking a break.

Let's meet tomorrow.

Let's meet tomorrow.

What are you doing tonight?

What are you doing tonight?

I'm staying home.

I'm staying home.

Do you want to come?

Do you want to come?

I'll think about it.

I'll think about it.

Call me later.

Call me later.

I'll text you.

I'll text you.

See you soon.

See you soon.

How was your day?

How was your day?

It was pretty good.

It was pretty good.

Explanation: Pretty good means it was nice, it was okay, it was fine.

Nothing special happened.

Nothing special happened.

I had a busy day.

I had a busy day.

I'm so tired today.

I'm so tired today.

I need more sleep.

I need more sleep.

The movie was boring.

The movie was boring.

I loved that book.

I loved that book.

Have you seen this show?

Have you seen this show?

I'm watching Netflix.

I'm watching Netflix.

The music is too loud.

The music is too loud.

Can you turn it down?

Can you turn it down?

Explanation: Turn it down means make the volume lower, make it less loud.

I like this song.

I like this song.

My favorite color is blue.

My favorite color is blue.

I have two brothers.

I have two brothers.

My sister is younger.

My sister is younger.

I miss my family.

I miss my family.

I live in an apartment.

I live in an apartment.

My house is small.

My house is small.

I love my neighborhood.

I love my neighborhood.

Explanation: Neighborhood means the area where you live, the nearby houses and streets around your home.

The traffic is terrible.

The traffic is terrible.

I hate waiting in line.

I hate waiting in line.

Explanation: Waiting in line means standing in a queue, waiting for your turn.

This is taking forever.

This is taking forever.

Explanation: Taking forever means it's taking too much time, it's very slow.

I'm almost done.

I'm almost done.

Just one more minute.

Just one more minute.

I need to hurry up.

I need to hurry up.

Explanation: Hurry up means move faster, do something quickly.

We're going to be late.

We're going to be late.

Calm down, we have time.

Calm down, we have time.

I'm feeling better now.

I'm feeling better now.

Are you okay?

Are you okay?

I think so.

I think so.

I'm not sure about that.

I'm not sure about that.

Maybe you're right.

Maybe you're right.

I agree with you.

I agree with you.

That makes sense.

That makes sense.

Explanation: Makes sense means it's logical, it's reasonable, I understand it.

I understand now.

I understand now.

Can you repeat that?

Can you repeat that?

I didn't catch that.

I didn't catch that.

Explanation: Didn't catch that means I didn't hear it clearly, I didn't understand what you said.

Speak more slowly, please.

Speak more slowly, please.

Thank you for your patience.

Thank you for your patience.

Explanation: Patience means the ability to wait calmly, being understanding and not getting angry.

Excellent work!

You just completed 100 easy sentences!

Your mouth is getting warmed up.

Your brain is getting used to English patterns.

Now you're ready for part 2!

Let's keep going!

Now we're moving to part 2.

These are normal difficulty sentences.

You'll use these in everyday conversations at work, with friends, and in social situations.

Some might feel a bit challenging, but that's exactly how you grow.

Stay focused and keep repeating after me two times.

Let's continue!

I'm planning to visit my parents this weekend.

I'm planning to visit my parents this weekend.

Have you finished your homework yet?

Have you finished your homework yet?

I've been working on this project for weeks.

I've been working on this project for weeks.

She always arrives on time for meetings.

She always arrives on time for meetings.

I'm thinking about changing my job.

I'm thinking about changing my job.

Could you please pass me the salt?

Could you please pass me the salt?

I appreciate everything you've done for me.

I appreciate everything you've done for me.

Explanation: Appreciate means to be thankful for something, to recognize the value of someone's help or kindness.

The deadline is coming up really fast.

The deadline is coming up really fast.

Explanation: Deadline means the last date or time by which you must finish something.

I need to prepare for tomorrow's presentation.

I need to prepare for tomorrow's presentation.

He's been studying English for three years.

He's been studying English for three years.

I'm getting used to the new system.

I'm getting used to the new system.

Explanation: Getting used to means becoming comfortable with something new, adapting to a new situation.

That restaurant is worth trying out.

That restaurant is worth trying out.

Explanation: Worth trying out means it's good enough that you should try it, it deserves your time.

I've never been to that part of town.

I've never been to that part of town.

We should probably leave before rush hour.

We should probably leave before rush hour.

Explanation: Rush hour is the time of day when traffic is heaviest, usually when people go to work or come home from work.

I'm trying to save money for vacation.

I'm trying to save money for vacation.

She reminds me of someone I used to know.

She reminds me of someone I used to know.

Explanation: Reminds me of means she is similar to someone, she makes me think of another person.

I can't seem to figure this out.

I can't seem to figure this out.

Explanation: Figure this out means to understand something, to solve a problem or puzzle.

Would you mind closing the window?

Would you mind closing the window?

I'm looking forward to the weekend.

I'm looking forward to the weekend.

Explanation: Looking forward to means feeling excited about something that will happen in the future.

They've decided to postpone the meeting.

They've decided to postpone the meeting.

Explanation: Postpone means to delay something, to schedule it for a later time.

I haven't heard from him in ages.

I haven't heard from him in ages.

Explanation: In ages means for a very long time, it's been many months or years.

This situation is getting complicated.

This situation is getting complicated.

I'm supposed to pick up my kids at five.

I'm supposed to pick up my kids at five.

The instructions are a bit confusing.

The instructions are a bit confusing.

I recommend checking the weather forecast.

I recommend checking the weather forecast.

Explanation: Forecast means a prediction about what the weather will be like in the future.

She's always complaining about something.

She's always complaining about something.

Explanation: Complaining means expressing dissatisfaction, saying negative things about something.

I'm considering taking a course online.

I'm considering taking a course online.

Explanation: Considering means thinking about doing something, weighing the options.

We had to cancel our plans last minute.

We had to cancel our plans last minute.

Explanation: Last minute means at the very end, just before something was supposed to happen.

I'm not comfortable with that idea.

I'm not comfortable with that idea.

He tends to exaggerate sometimes.

He tends to exaggerate sometimes.

Explanation: Exaggerate means to make something sound bigger, better, or worse than it really is.

I'd rather stay in than go out tonight.

I'd rather stay in than go out tonight.

Explanation: I'd rather means I prefer, I would choose one option over another.

The package should arrive by Thursday.

The package should arrive by Thursday.

I'm having trouble concentrating today.

I'm having trouble concentrating today.

Explanation: Concentrating means focusing your attention on something, paying close attention.

She's really good at solving problems.

She's really good at solving problems.

I wasn't expecting to see you here.

I wasn't expecting to see you here.

We're running out of time to finish this.

We're running out of time to finish this.

Explanation: Running out of time means we don't have much time left, time is almost finished.

I've been meaning to call you all week.

I've been meaning to call you all week.

Explanation: Been meaning to means I intended to do something, I planned to do it but haven't done it yet.

That's exactly what I was thinking.

That's exactly what I was thinking.

I'm worried about the exam results.

I'm worried about the exam results.

He promised to help me move tomorrow.

He promised to help me move tomorrow.

I should have listened to your advice.

I should have listened to your advice.

She's been acting strange lately.

She's been acting strange lately.

Explanation: Acting strange means behaving in an unusual or different way.

I'm trying to cut down on sugar.

I'm trying to cut down on sugar.

Explanation: Cut down on means to reduce the amount of something, to use or consume less.

The store was completely sold out.

The store was completely sold out.

Explanation: Sold out means all items are sold, nothing is left to buy.

I need to renew my passport soon.

I need to renew my passport soon.

Explanation: Renew means to extend the validity period, to get a new one before the old one expires.

They're planning to renovate their house.

They're planning to renovate their house.

Explanation: Renovate means to repair and improve a building, to make it look new again.

I couldn't resist buying those shoes.

I couldn't resist buying those shoes.

Explanation: Couldn't resist means I couldn't stop myself, the temptation was too strong.

We're hoping to hear back next week.

We're hoping to hear back next week.

Explanation: Hear back means to receive a response or reply from someone.

I'm terrible at remembering names.

I'm terrible at remembering names.

She deserves a promotion after all her hard work.

She deserves a promotion after all her hard work.

Explanation: Deserves means she has earned it, she should get it because she worked hard.

You're doing fantastic!

Part 3: Difficult Sentences (201-250) - Line by Line with Double Repetition

[PART 3: 100 DIFFICULT SENTENCES]

Incredible work so far!

You've completed 200 sentences!

Now we're entering part 3, the difficult sentences.

These are advanced expressions that native speakers use in professional settings and sophisticated conversations.

Don't worry if some feel challenging.

I'll explain the tricky ones so you truly understand them.

This is where you become a confident English speaker.

Stay with me and repeat after me two times.

Let's begin!

I've been grappling with this ethical dilemma for weeks.

I've been grappling with this ethical dilemma for weeks.

Explanation: Grappling with means struggling to deal with something difficult. Ethical dilemma is a situation where you must choose between two morally difficult options, both choices have good and bad points.

The company's revenue has been fluctuating unpredictably.

The company's revenue has been fluctuating unpredictably.

Explanation: Revenue means the money a company earns. Fluctuating means changing up and down irregularly. Unpredictably means you cannot guess what will happen next.

I'm utterly exhausted from the consecutive meetings.

I'm utterly exhausted from the consecutive meetings.

Explanation: Utterly means completely, totally. Consecutive means happening one after another without a break.

She has an exceptional ability to articulate complex ideas.

She has an exceptional ability to articulate complex ideas.

Explanation: Exceptional means unusually good, outstanding. Articulate means to express thoughts clearly in words.

The project's success hinges on securing adequate funding.

The project's success hinges on securing adequate funding.

Explanation: Hinges on means depends completely on something. Securing means getting or obtaining. Adequate means enough, sufficient.

I'm endeavoring to cultivate better work habits.

I'm endeavoring to cultivate better work habits.

Explanation: Endeavoring means trying hard to achieve something. Cultivate means to develop and improve something over time.

His argument was compelling but ultimately flawed.

His argument was compelling but ultimately flawed.

Explanation: Compelling means convincing and powerful. Ultimately means in the end, finally. Flawed means having mistakes or weaknesses.

The implications of this decision are far-reaching.

The implications of this decision are far-reaching.

Explanation: Implications means the possible effects or results of something. Far-reaching means affecting many people or things, having wide impact.

I'm skeptical about the feasibility of this proposal.

I'm skeptical about the feasibility of this proposal.

Explanation: Skeptical means having doubts, not easily convinced. Feasibility means whether something is possible and practical to do.

She consistently demonstrates remarkable resilience under pressure.

She consistently demonstrates remarkable resilience under pressure.

Explanation: Consistently means regularly, all the time. Demonstrates means shows. Resilience means the ability to recover quickly from difficulties and stay strong.

The unprecedented circumstances require innovative solutions.

The unprecedented circumstances require innovative solutions.

Explanation: Unprecedented means never happened before, completely new. Circumstances means the conditions or facts of a situation. Innovative means creative and new.

I'm contemplating pursuing a graduate degree abroad.

I'm contemplating pursuing a graduate degree abroad.

Explanation: Contemplating means thinking seriously about something. Pursuing means working toward achieving something. Graduate degree means master's or PhD level education.

The negotiations have reached a critical juncture.

The negotiations have reached a critical juncture.

Explanation: Negotiations means discussions to reach an agreement. Critical juncture means an important point where a decision must be made.

His demeanor suggests he's concealing something important.

His demeanor suggests he's concealing something important.

Explanation: Demeanor means the way someone behaves and appears. Concealing means hiding something, keeping it secret.

I'm striving to maintain a healthy work-life equilibrium.

I'm striving to maintain a healthy work-life equilibrium.

Explanation: Striving means making great efforts to achieve something. Equilibrium means balance between different things.

The data corroborates our initial hypothesis remarkably well.

The data corroborates our initial hypothesis remarkably well.

Explanation: Corroborates means confirms, supports with evidence. Initial means first, original. Hypothesis means an idea or theory that needs to be tested.

She's renowned for her meticulous attention to detail.

She's renowned for her meticulous attention to detail.

Explanation: Renowned means famous, well-known. Meticulous means very careful and precise, paying attention to small details.

The policy changes will adversely affect vulnerable communities.

The policy changes will adversely affect vulnerable communities.

Explanation: Adversely means in a negative or harmful way. Vulnerable means weak, easily hurt, at risk of harm.

I'm advocating for a more transparent decision-making process.

I'm advocating for a more transparent decision-making process.

Explanation: Advocating means publicly supporting or recommending something. Transparent means open, clear, honest, with nothing hidden.

His expertise in this domain is virtually unparalleled.

His expertise in this domain is virtually unparalleled.

Explanation: Expertise means special skill or knowledge. Domain means a specific area or field. Virtually means almost, nearly. Unparalleled means having no equal, the best.

The organization is implementing comprehensive reform measures.

The organization is implementing comprehe